

Trident not finished

MORE to emerge from the $33.1 million sale of the Foxtel building at Robina this week.

Word is that Trident Corporation, the Brisbane-based property investment and advisory firm which picked up the building with a joint venture partner, may be planning a further foray into the Gold Coast commercial property scene.

Trident, which has holdings in Brisbane, Ipswich and the Gold Coast, has always had an interest in the local market.
